

Which community or organization are you from?

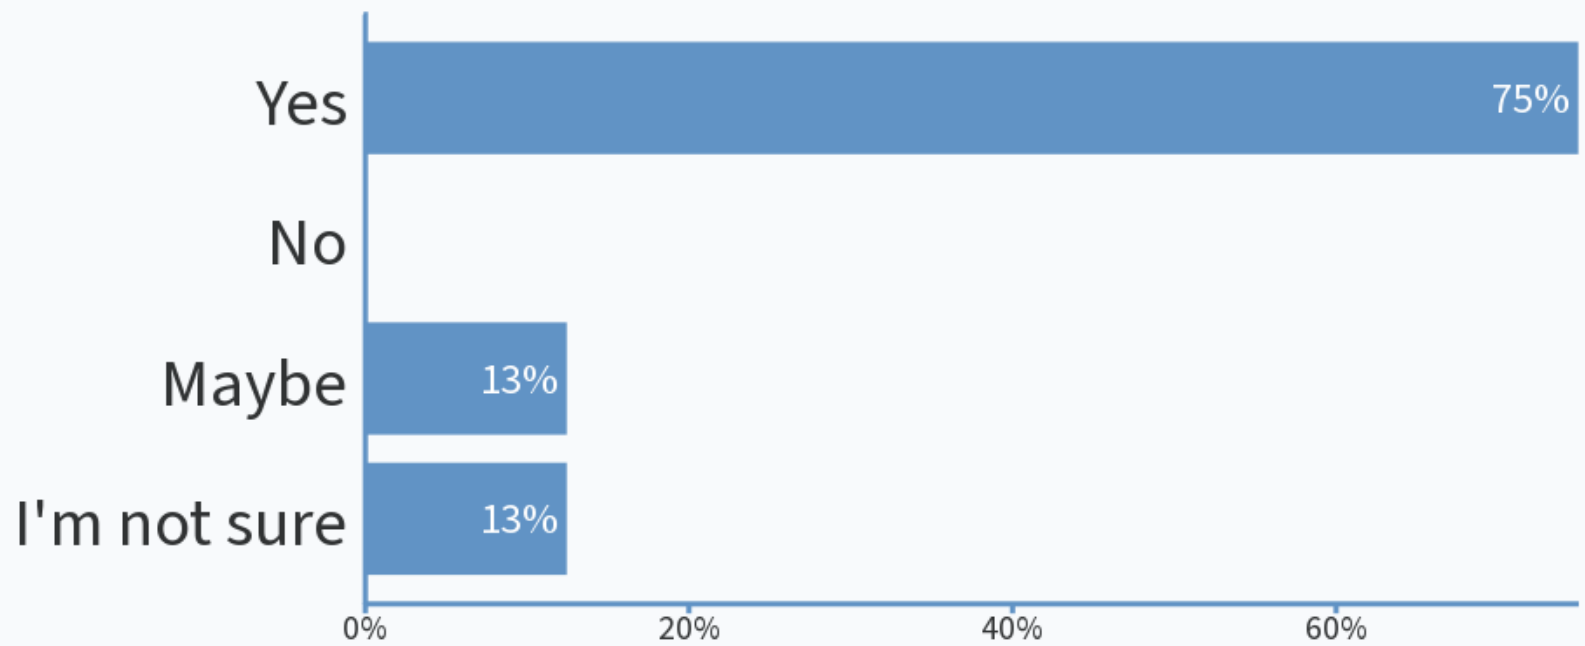

Name a plant, animal, or place that has a special meaning for you

A word cloud containing the following terms: eucalyptus, sth'íwéq', black-capped chickadees, black sas(bear), cedar, nisk bald, grass, sugar, fish, turtle, elder, walleye, moose, (falco), (moose), snake, sumac, blandings, sas, tree, alvar, (bear), starlings, sweet, (rhus), systems, turtles, maple, kestrel, goose, khuda, american, birch, sparverius), hunters, wetland, trees, (wolf), rat typhina), snapping, stag-horn, blue wood, red fox, white pine, eagle, mahingan, vulpes vulpes, point, snake, sumac, blandings, (rhus), systems, turtles, maple, kestrel, goose, khuda, american, birch, sparverius), hunters, wetland, trees, (wolf), rat typhina), snapping, stag-horn, blue wood, red fox, white pine, eagle, mahingan, vulpes vulpes.

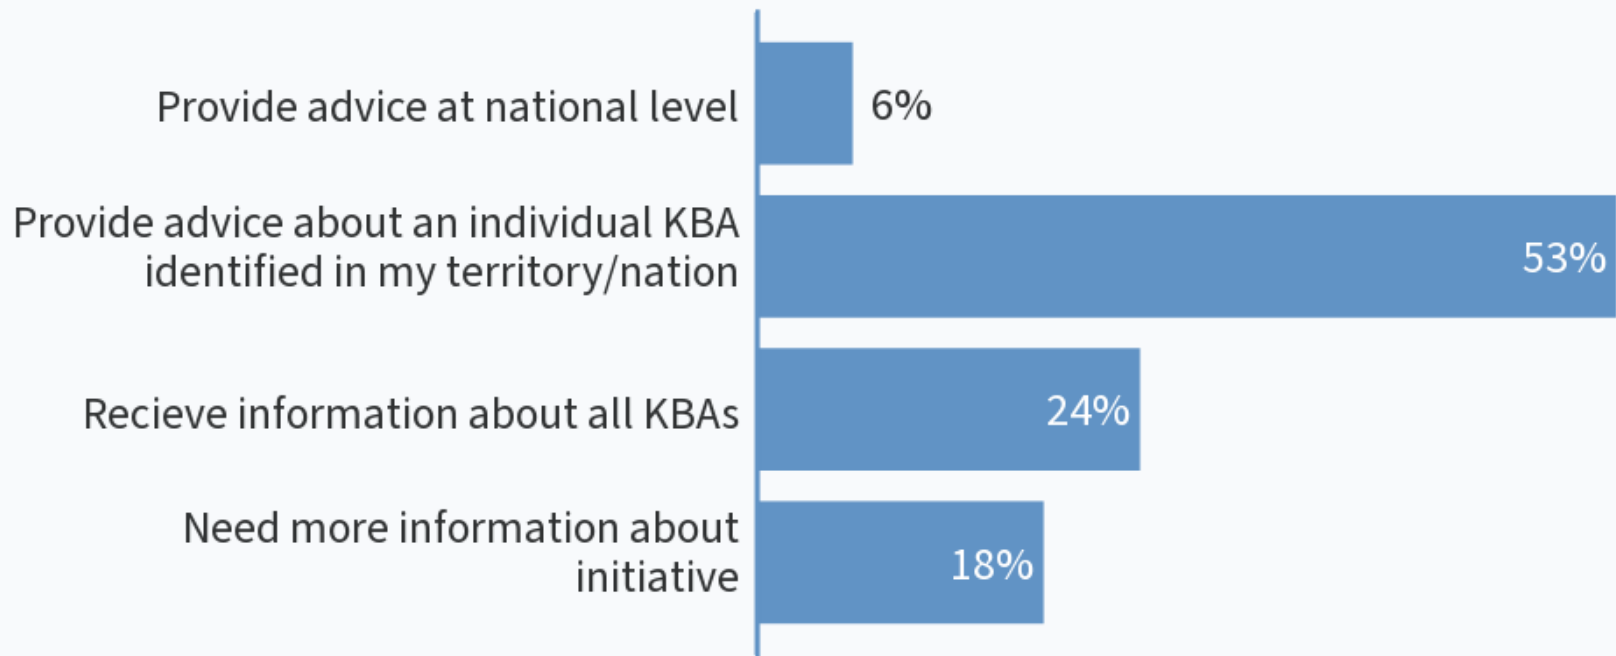

What other things should we be considering when talking about KBAs across Indigenous lands?

Would international recognition as a KBA help your community in taking care of its homelands?

How might you like to be included in identifying KBAs across your homelands?

Are you interested in providing advice to the KBA program?

